Miss Laura Hugh and Miss Laura Maples were the guests of Ethel and Dell Archer Sunday evening. Rev. C. B. Waller will preach at Hales school house next Saturday and Saturday next at Chestnut Grove, also Sunday at 11 o'clock. The prayer meeting at the Grove is in a flourishing condition. All seems to be in union and harmony, although there are about four or five denominations to take part in it. Jesse Keys is on the sick list." Mrs. M. J. Archer was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Henry Archer, lust week. Melvin Beals says he is going west soon. Mrs. Denton is very JULIA ANN.

Hens pay well when they do not carry too much extra baggage in the shape of lice, red mites, and other external parasites, it is no use thinking that lice and hens will together make a team. They won't, the lice come out ahead every single time and the hens just get beaten. With the approval of the secretary of war, the major and two troops of cavalry stationed at Fort Sheridau

Ill., have been transferred to the department of Colorado. One of the troops will be sent to Fort Huashuca and the other to Fort Grant both in A way to tell bad eggs is to put them in a pail of water, and if good, they lie on their side; if bad, they will stand on their small ends, the large end always uppermost, unless they have been shaken considerably, when they will stand either end up. Therefore a bad egg can be told by the way it rests in the water, always end up, never on its

A special from Jacksonville, Fla., says: Axel Johnson, one of the crew of the schooner Seminole, which was wrecked several days ago off the east coast of Florida, floated ashore four miles south of Fort Pierce on wreckage, to which he had been clinging 136 hours without food or water. Two companions with him on the raft were washed overboard' several days ago. Johnson is badly bruised and very
